

CPE Membership information
Effective May 15, 2021

Thank you for your interest in CPE!

Registration is through member services, see details below.

An email address is required for membership**

- The email address is needed to sign into Member Services through the CPE website.
- If you do not have an email address: free email address providers are available and can be used through a library's internet connection – a home computer is not necessary. Some of the most popular free email providers are outlook, yahoo, gmail (do a web search for others).
- There is a $7 fee to correct a dog's birthdate. Please ensure the birthdate is correct when adding a dog.

Questions on membership or renewal information?

Please email CPE: sean@cpe.dog.

Add the domain @k9cpe.com and @cpe.dog to your accepted list of emails.

Gmail and other email server filters often block our emails.

Also, please check your spam/junk folders.

NEW MEMBERS: have never applied for a CPE id number: click the link to member services below, on the left side, click the purple highlighted box "NEW MEMBER REGISTRATION:

<https://www.k9cpe.com/memberservices>

CURRENT MEMBERS: sign into your member page through member services link below, click each of the green highlighted boxes that pertain to what you wish to change.

<https://www.k9cpe.com/memberservices>

Membership name changes and dog birthdate changes (include proof of birthdate) must be mailed to CPE at the address below, with $7 for each change. Include the membership ID number.

TRANSFERRING A DOG TO A NEW OWNER:

Add the dog to a new membership or existing membership.

If no Q records are being transferred, email proof of the ownership transfer to CPE with the dog's old and new id numbers: sean@cpe.dog

If there are Q records to be transferred, mail proof of the ownership transfer to CPE at the address on the contact us web page, with the dog's old and new id numbers and $20 for the records transfer.

Jr Handler Form – to report Q's for Jr Handler Titles:

<http://www.k9cpe.com/forms/jrhandler12012018.pdf>